Job Details

In their first year, GELs undergo a 10 months structured program encompassing rotations to give hands on experience in various functional areas and develop a deep understanding of our business

- Post program completion, GELs are absorbed at one of our facilities in a full-time role
- As a manufacturing company, we strongly believe that real learning happens on the ground—at our sites. To build a solid foundation for your internship and overall journey with us, your initial stints and first placement will be at one of our manufacturing facilities.
